

Expectations of Students

- Read and respond to your text messages and emails from ACAP Administrators and Counselors when received.
- Follow directions (they won't be repeated numerous times; late assignments are not acceptable).
- Wear your name badge at all times.
- Be accounted for at all times.
- Each student is required to go to breakfast each morning.
- Attend and participate in class. (The camp is designed for participatory and collaborative learning.)
- Be on time for class and events.
- Work in groups when expected.
- Dress appropriately as instructed.
- Speak loud enough to be heard (for all activities).
- Don't sleep in sessions.
- Meet new friends and mentors.
- Keep something to write with and on (at most times). Beware of social media posts.
- Any ACAP student may be chosen to do interviews during ACAP Week. If so, the student is expected to participate and honor the request with the understanding that all interviews and pictures will only be used for the promotion of ACAP and to obtain funding to support the continuation of the program.
- Have fun.
- Pay it forward (be an ACAP Ambassador).
