

Jordan Hamilton

Jordan Hamilton is a Dallas native and second oldest of two siblings. Jordan graduated in the top 10% of her high school class in 2017. She then went on to receive her associate degree from Southwestern Christian College in 2019, graduating as Valedictorian. During her time at Southwestern, she participated in both summer and spring tours and served as sophomore president in student government. Pursuing a degree in business management, she serves as an Accounting Clerk at Zeno & Associates in Dallas, Texas. Although, she has a passion to work with children of all ages. When she is not working or attending class, she enjoys spending time with friends and family, baking, listening to music, shopping, reading devotionals, and trying new things. She believes that being a positive influence and example to a younger generation is her greatest passion that will change the world.
