

Kim Holland, MBA

Kim Holland graduated from Southern Methodist University in 2006 and immediately joined the team of Becker Professional Education as Account Manager. She trained under renowned CPA instructors, Liliana Hickman-Riggs, and William Riggs. Since her start with Becker, Kim has become a knowledge expert in the field of CPA Exam Review and training. In 2013, she earned her MBA from Keller Graduate School of Management, and in 2017, she promoted to Senior Account Manager at Becker. Prior to her time with Becker, Kim trained competitive dance teams and dancers for nearly 15 years. Ms. Holland has always been passionate about coaching, and now she shares that passion with DFW accounting students as she advises them on the pathway to CPA!
