

ACCOUNTING CAREER AWARENESS PROGRAM

REFERENCE MATERIALS: INTRODUCTION TO COLLEGE LIFE

FOR GOOD GRADES

- Set goals
- Study hard
- Talk to instructors and counselors
- Get a tutor, if needed

TO DEVELOP STRONG STUDY HABITS/SKILLS

- Get organized (physically and mentally; clear your desk of clutter and distractions)
- Read/research
- Manage your time wisely (set priorities for yourself; stick to your study schedule; set goals)
- Take notes (abbreviate, listen attentively)

CHOOSING ROOMMATES

- Likes/dislikes
- Values, interests, skills
- Tastes (food, music, clothing, cleanliness, etc.)
- Study habits
- Traditions, culture

CLASS SCHEDULING

- You should know:
 - Core requirements for your chosen field of study
 - Class load capacity (e.g., how many classes or hours)
 - Whether you can handle morning or evening classes
