

Professor Regina Brown

Regina Lanett Brown is a native of Chicago, IL, and is currently an Accounting Professor at Dallas College, Eastfield Campus, Dallas, TX. Professor Brown has nineteen years of teaching experience and ten years of corporate Accounting experience. She always searches for forward-thinking and innovative instructional methods to engage and challenge students. Professor Brown also involves students outside of the classroom to expose them to real-world opportunities. Brown uses her education, expertise, determination, and life experiences, to encourage individuals to renew their lives. Now, living her dream, she founded RLB Consulting Service to Educate, Motivate, and Empower others to achieve their goals. The Texas Society of CPAs awarded Professor Brown the prestigious title of "Outstanding Accounting Educator of the Year" in 2015. Subsequently, she self-published Level Up, a Vision Planning Devotional Journal in 2018.
