

Russell Haynes Biography

Russell I Haynes has served as a Higher Education Administrator and Adjunct Faculty Member for over 20 years. He served as the Associate Dean of Business, Public Service and IT at El Centro College, the Dean of Retention Management at Cedar Valley College. He has led the Male Initiative Program at Cedar Valley College and El Centro College. He has also taught Psychology at El Centro College and Odessa College for the past 20 years.

Russell's greatest strength is developing programs that prepare students for success in a college environment and beyond.

He served on the following committees to name a few: Presidents Round Table Corporate/Business Partnerships Advisory Committee, Presidents Round Table Male Initiative Committee, Learning for Life Advisory Committee (Circle Ten Boy Scouts Of America), Chair, Entrepreneurial Academy Committee, Homeland Security's (Transportation Security Administration) Coalition on Disability Committee

Russell is the holder of a Bachelor's degree in Industrial Organization Psychology from Lubbock Christian University and a Master's degree in Industrial Organization Psychology from Eastern New Mexico University. Russell is also the father of 2 adult children, Ashlee and Matthew.