

Stacy Tubonemi

Stacy Tubonemi graduated last month from SMU with an MBA in Finance, Strategy and Entrepreneurship and a minor in Management. While at SMU she served as the President of NABA and volunteered as a panelist during last summer's ACAP virtual college readiness conference. She was recently listed as one of Poet's and Quants best and brightest MBA students. She also received the 2020 Texas business hall of fame future business leader award. Stacy obtained her bachelor's degree in finance also from SMU in 2016. She then went on to work for JP Morgan Chase in its Leadership Development Program. Stacy will begin work this summer with AT&T full time as a Senior financial analyst in its Finance Leadership Development Program.
