A Week At TCU

We are looking for smart, motivated, engaged students.

There is a world of opportunity waiting in accounting and finance careers, and TCU wants to get you there. We partnered with the National Association for Black Accountants, Inc. (NABA) to bring the Accounting Career Awareness Program to Fort Worth on the TCU campus to bridge the opportunity gap for underrepresented high school students.

You'll spend one week on the TCU campus over the summer, getting a taste of the college experience and learning more about careers in accounting and finance.

And it's all free.
