

Volunteer Opportunities

| Date (Period)    | Opportunity             | Nature of Service Required  |
|------------------|-------------------------|---|
| May 1 – May 15   | Student Interviews      | Using an established process and scoring rubric, the ACAP Interviewer will virtually interview ACAP Applicants on designated dates and at designated times. Interviewer Huddle (training) is scheduled.   |
| June 1 – July 31 | Mentor                  | Committed individuals are asked to serve as mentors to ACAP students during the immediate weeks prior to ACAP Week and for some time post-ACAP as desired. There are more specific notes as to what this mentor/mentee relationship should look like.   |
| July 27 – July 2 | ACAP Counselor          | Committed and student-centered individuals serve as counselors and mentors to an assigned group of students. There is an application and screening process. There is ACAP Orientation.  |
| June 27 – July 2 | Session Speaker         | During ACAP, selected professionals will facilitate targeted sessions or participate in panel discussions. See separate document for curriculum and course descriptions.  |
| June 27 – July 2 | Group Project Advisor   | The Group Project is the capstone project. During ACAP Week, students will act as young entrepreneurs and decide what type of business they are in and/or what products or services they will provide. Each Project Team will pitch its products or services idea to a group of potential clients/customers who act as judges. Business professionals may be assigned to each project team as an advisor or mentor. |
| June 27 – July 2 | Scholarship Interviewer | Selected individuals interview those graduating seniors who apply for the ACAP scholarships. A scholarship process and scoring rubric are used.   |
| July 1           | Group Project Judge     | Selected business professionals serve as judges of the Group Project Presentations. A grading process and rubric are used to document the results.  |
| July 1           | Talent Show Judge       | Selected individuals serve as judges for the Talent Show. A grading rubric is used in the process.  |
